Selected Abstracts

This section features abstracts for various products released during the month or previously released products of wide interest.

Educational Attainment in the United States: March 1995 (P20-489)

Data time span—1995, with limited data since 1940.

Geographic areas covered—United States, with limited data for regions and States.

Subject content—This report shows, in concise, pamphlet style, educational attainment in terms of the highest grade completed or degree earned. (Before 1992, the Census Bureau had measured educational attainment by years of school completed.) This report focuses on three categories of attainment: high school degree, college education at some level, and bachelor's (or more advanced) degree.

The report stresses the influence of age, contrasting education among those 25 to 29 with all those 25 and over. It also links education with employment, occupation, and earnings. Moreover, like more detailed earlier volumes, this report shows educational attainment by sex, race, Hispanic origin, and metropolitan residence.

GPO S/N 803-005-00091-5. 6 pp. 1996. $1.75. Use form 3, last page.

Dynamics of Economic Well-Being: Labor Force, 1992-93—A Perspective on Low-Wage Workers. (P70-57).

Data time span—1992 through 1993, with some comparative data for 1983 through 1985.

Geographic areas covered—United States.

Subject content—This report presents in concise, pamphlet style, data on low-wage employment, meaning here an hourly wage that earned full time would result in poverty for a family of three. Charts and text tables depict such employment in broad age groups, by sex, with separate statistics by education level (high school or less, for example). For comparison, they include similar data on those paid

How to Order

Publications

Most Census Bureau publications are available through one of three offices: the Census Bureau's Data Preparation Division (see order form 1), the Census Bureau's Customer Services (see form 2), or the Government Printing Office (see form 3). The new publication entries in this Monthly Product Announcement direct you to the right source by specifying the form to use or specifying another office as the source.

As the forms indicate, both Customer Services and the Government Printing Office (GPO) accept phone or fax orders when you charge to VISA, MasterCard, or a deposit account. Both offer express service for off-the-shelf products for an extra charge when you order by phone.

Generally, if you order 100 copies or more of a publication sent to one address, you may take a 25-percent discount.

Computer Files

To order data files, use order form 2 or order by phone or fax, unless the entry gives other instructions. (Sales are final—with the exception that defective products may be returned within 90 days. Contact Customer Services before returning an item.)

Technical documentation accompanies each file, or it often may be ordered separately, using form 2.

Files on computer tape are offered on tape reels or tape cartridges. The tape cartridges are IBM 3480 compatible (operable with StorageTek 4780 tape subsystems and Digital Equipment Corporation VAX TA90 subsystems).

When mass-produced, files on CD-ROM (compact disc-read-only memory) also are listed in the "Data Files" section earlier in this publication. Customer Services offers priority service for off-the-shelf products for an extra $25 fee when you order by phone.

Other tape files can be produced on CD-ROM by special order for the price of the tape. See the discussion under "Data Files."

Some data files are available on diskettes for IBM and compatible microcomputers.

Online Access

Many reports and data files are accessible, in whole or in part, online through the Internet. You may reach our Internet site via these protocols:

World-Wide Web: <http://www.census.gov/>

FTP: <ftp://ftp.census.gov>

For our Internet electronic subscription service, CenStats, which offers all printed reports issued this year and more, the URL is <http://www.census.gov/prod/www/>.

For technical questions, you may E-mail to webmaster@census.gov.
